Sun & Moon Capital and A&M-Commerce Forge Dynamic Internship Partnership to Cultivate Future Private Equity Leaders

Dallas, Texas, February 16, 2024 – Sun & Moon Capital., a micro-market buyout PE firm, proudly announces a strategic partnership with A&M-Commerce to launch an innovative internship program that provides career training for College of Business curriculum tracks for current international and recent graduate students.

This partnership will provide students from A&M-Commerce with invaluable hands-on experience and mentorship opportunities within Sun & Moon Capital's dynamic work environment while offering the company access to top-tier talent and fresh perspectives.

"We are thrilled to partner with A&M at Commerce to create a unique internship program that bridges the gap between academic learning and real-world application," said Javar Avery, CEO of Sun & Moon Capital. "By providing students with practical experience and exposure to the world of finance, we aim to be a launch pad for international students who are eligible for off-campus employment through Curricular Practical Training (CPT) and Optional Practical Training (OPT).

Through the internship program, students will have the opportunity to work on various projects spanning many industries. Additionally, interns will receive mentorship from experienced Sun & Moon Capital professionals. They will learn how to turn datasets into actionable insights for understanding the latest trends and technologies shaping the field of Private Equity.

"Our partnership with Sun & Moon Capital exemplifies our commitment to providing students with experiential learning opportunities that complement their academic studies. This partnership allows them to discover how their advanced learning can be leveraged for a company with multiple facets to its growth," said Shernay Wormley, Senior Career Service Coordinator for the College of Business. "We are excited to collaborate with Sun & Moon Capital to create multiple meaningful internships for our students and continuously develop their leadership career paths.

The internship program will be open to students pursuing finance, business analytics, marketing and communications, and human resources management degrees at A&M-Commerce. Interested candidates can apply through handshake.
